

Social Media & Online Communication Policy

Policy No: POL-IT-009 | Version: v1.2 | Department: HR & Communications | Effective: March 17, 2026

1. PURPOSE

This policy provides guidance on the use of social media and online communication platforms by employees, both in a professional capacity representing the company and in personal use where the company may be referenced or affected.

2. SCOPE

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and representatives of the organization, covering all social media platforms, blogs, forums, review sites, and online communities.

3. TABLE OF CONTENTS

| Section | Title                     |
|---------|---------------------------|
| 4       | Official Company Accounts |
| 5       | Personal Social Media Use |
| 6       | Prohibited Content        |
| 7       | Brand & Reputation        |
| 8       | Confidentiality Online    |
| 9       | Monitoring & Compliance   |

4. OFFICIAL COMPANY ACCOUNTS

- Only designated Marketing/Communications team members may post on official company accounts.
- All official posts must be reviewed and approved per the content approval workflow.
- Social media account credentials must be stored in the company password manager.
- Unauthorized individuals must not post on official channels or impersonate the company.
- Offensive, misleading, or legally sensitive content must never be published on company channels.
- Respond to public comments and messages professionally within 4 business hours during business days.

5. PERSONAL SOCIAL MEDIA USE

5.1 During Work Hours

Personal social media use on company devices or networks during work hours should be limited and not interfere with productivity. Excessive use may be subject to disciplinary action.

5.2 Disclosing Employment

Employees who identify themselves as company employees on personal social media must:

- State clearly that views expressed are personal and not those of the company.
- Behave professionally and in accordance with company values.
- Not make statements that could be damaging, misleading, or defamatory about the company, clients, or colleagues.

5.3 LinkedIn & Professional Networking

Employees are encouraged to maintain professional LinkedIn profiles and share appropriate company news, but must not publish confidential business information.

6. PROHIBITED CONTENT

---

Employees must never post the following content, whether on personal or professional accounts:

- Confidential business information, trade secrets, or unreleased product information.
- Client names, project details, or internal business strategies.
- Financial information not already publicly disclosed by the company.
- Personal information of colleagues without their explicit consent.
- Disparaging comments about competitors, clients, or company leadership.
- Content that is defamatory, harassing, discriminatory, or in violation of any law.
- Internal company documents, screenshots of internal systems, or confidential emails.

7. BRAND & REPUTATION

---

- Employees are ambassadors of the company brand. Personal conduct online can reflect on the organization.
- Correct factual errors about the company you observe online — follow the escalation process rather than responding personally.
- Do not engage in public disputes or arguments involving the company online.
- Awards, recognitions, and company achievements may be shared with prior written approval.

Note: If you are unsure whether a post is appropriate, consult your manager or the Communications team before posting.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY ONLINE

---

- Client relationships and project engagements are confidential and must not be discussed online.
- Do not reveal details about internal processes, technology stack, or business plans.

- Employee salary, benefits, or HR matters are confidential and must not be shared.
- Vendor relationships and commercial terms are confidential.
- Discussions of pending mergers, acquisitions, or partnerships are strictly prohibited.

9. MONITORING & COMPLIANCE

- The company reserves the right to monitor public social media activity that references the company name, employees, clients, or products.
- Employees found in violation of this policy will face disciplinary action proportionate to the severity of the breach.
- Serious violations (e.g., sharing confidential data) may result in immediate termination.
- The company may take legal action in cases of defamation, intellectual property violations, or significant reputational harm.

Note: This policy will be reviewed annually and updated in line with evolving social media platforms and legal requirements.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I, the undersigned, confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy. I understand that violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

Employee
Name: _____

Date: _____

Employee
ID: _____

Signature: _____

Department
: _____

Manager: _____

For questions regarding this policy, contact the IT Department at it-policy@company.com